The Thirty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B – 17/18 November 2018

- ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction.
You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place.
- FIRST READING: (Daniel 12:1-13)
- RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Keep me safe, O God: you are my hope.
O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup; it is you yourself who are my prize.
I keep the Lord ever in my sight: since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm.
And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad; even my body shall rest in safety.
For you will not leave my soul among the dead, nor let your beloved know decay.
You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, at your right hand happiness forever.
- (9.30am) You will show me the path of life, you, my hope and my shelter;
In your presence is endless joy, at your side is my home for ever.
- SECOND READING: (Hebrews 10:11-14, 18)
- GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia!
Be watchful, and pray constantly, that you may be worthy to stand before the Son of Man. Alleluia!

TEN STEPS TOWARDS "A Place to Call Home"- 8. HELP COMBAT MISUNDERSTANDING AND MISREPRESENTATION.

For any of us, a sudden personal or health crisis can cause great hardship and put pressure on family life. Some people who lack the necessary economic resources or social support, such crises can lead to homelessness. Social Justice Statement 2018–2019, p. 7. How often do we hear calls to 'clean up the streets' or people in need being dismissed as 'lazy', 'irresponsible' or worse? Do councils and neighbourhoods always welcome proposals for shelters or facilities for homeless people? Challenge the myths that further marginalise people experiencing homelessness. Challenge the myth that homelessness will always be with us. Homelessness can be solved.
