The Baptism of the Lord, Year C, 12/13 January, 2019

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: After the Lord was baptised, the heavens were opened, and the Spirit descended upon him like a dove, and the voice of the Father thundered: This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.

FIRST READING: (Isaiah 40:1-5, 9-11)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Oh, bless the Lord, my soul!
Lord God, how great you are, clothed in majesty and glory, wrapped in light as in a robe! You stretch out the heavens like a tent.
Above the rains you build your dwelling. You make the clouds your chariot, you walk on the wings of the wind, you make the winds your messengers and flashing fire your servants.
How many are your works, O Lord! In wisdom you have made them all. The earth is full of your riches. There is the sea, vast and wide, with its moving swarms past counting, living things, great and small.
All of these look to you to give them their food in due season. You give it, they gather it up: you open your hand, they have their fill.
You take back your spirit, they die, returning to the dust from which they came. You send forth your spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the earth.

(9.30am)

The Lord is my light and my salvation, of whom I should be afraid, of whom should I be afraid?

SECOND READING: (Titus 2:11-14; 3:4-7)

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, Alleluia! John said: He who is to come is mightier than I; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: (Luke 3:15-16, 21-22)

(Next Sunday – The 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C: Isaiah 62:1-5 1 Corinthians 12:4-11 John 2:1-11)

Remember to pray for the Church as it begins to implement the findings of the Royal Commission. The Catholic Parish of St. Joseph's is committed to providing a safe and nurturing culture for all children and young people in our parish.

IMPORTANT SUNDAY PARKING NOTICE: (Does not apply to Saturday Vigil Mass) St Joseph's has been issued with parking permits which cover the four spaces outside the church in Macquarie St. (but not the two spaces next to the Astor Grill) and eight spaces in Harrington St. from the corner down to the Monastery driveway. Parishioners who use these spaces for different masses each Sunday need to collect permits - preferably one for each street if you park in either street - and to start to display the appropriate one on your dashboard beginning as soon as you collect it. These will cover you from 7.00 am till 4.00 pm on Sunday, but only for the designated 12 spaces. After a short transition period, HHC parking inspectors will start to issue infringement notices to anyone parked in these spaces who does not have a permit or who hasn't paid for the metered space. Please contact Father Peter to arrange to collect your permit. You do not need to fill anything in on it, simply display it each Sunday.

RESTORATION HIGHLIGHTS: On Christmas day we celebrated the 177th birthday of St Joseph's church and we remember with gratitude the faith of our forebears free settlers and convicts who are the living foundation stones upon which our church and faith is built. Last week Gavin Merrington finished the restoration of the stained glass windows. History of windows: The stained glass windows were put in between 1856 and 1893 and all except one were made by Hardman and Scott of Birmingham, U.K. The pair between the chapel and the confessionals are scenes from the life of St. Joseph and were installed in 1871, one, in memory of Bishop Wilson and his Vicar-General Dr. William Hall, who both died in 1866, includes their portraits. The other is in memory of Archdeacon George Hunter ordained in this church in 1850, brother of the architect Henry Hunter. Opposite, on the Harrington Street side, is a window in memory of Fr. John Joseph Therry, founder of this church, given by his brother in 1877. It shows St. Joseph and St. John the Baptist with Fr. Therry, wearing a cope, kneeling at his feet. The window of the Annunciation and Nativity is the oldest and was installed in the Sanctuary wall by Bishop Willson in 1856, in memory of the English architect A. W. Pugin who had given the Bishop designs for churches. It was moved in 1877 when the chapel was built. The window over the sacristy door in memory of Fr. Joseph Aloysius Sheehy shows St. Joseph, the Sacred Heart and St Aloysius, and was made in 1893 by Lyon, Wells and Cottier of Sydney. The Sheehy family had been connected with St. Joseph's from the beginning. In October this year a custom made cabinet was purchased by the parish for the preservation of the rare Pugin vestments which have not been in public view for a long time. We express our gratitude to the people of the Tasmanian Museum especially Nikki Kingsmith.... who provided not only advice on how we should preserve these historically important vestments but did all the 'hands on work' for us. Over the coming months parishioners and visitors will be given the opportunity to view these vestments alongside the chalices and significant altar ware that are part of St Joseph's history.
