ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Save us, O Lord our God! And gather us from the nations, to give thanks to your holy name, and make it our glory to praise you.

FIRST READING: (Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: I will sing of your salvation.

In you, O Lord, I take refuge; let me never be put to shame.
In your justice rescue me, free me: pay heed to me and save me.

Be a rock where I can take refuge, a mighty stronghold to save me;
for you are my rock, my stronghold. Free me from the hand of the wicked.

It is you, O Lord, who are my hope, my trust, O Lord, since my youth.
On you I have leaned from my birth, from my mother's womb you have been my help.

My lips will tell of your justice and day by day of your help. O God, you have taught me from my youth and I proclaim your wonders still.

(9.30am) The Lord is my light and my salvation, of whom should I be afraid, of whom should I be afraid?

IMPORTANT SUNDAY PARKING NOTICE: (Does not apply to Saturday Vigil Mass) St Joseph's has been issued with parking permits which cover the four spaces outside the church in Macquarie St. (but not the two spaces next to the Astor Grill) and eight spaces in Harrington St. from the corner down to the Monastery driveway. Parishioners who use these spaces for different masses each Sunday need to collect permits - preferably one for each street if you park in either street - and to start to display the appropriate one on your dashboard beginning as soon as you collect it. These will cover you from 7.00 am till 4.00 pm on Sunday, but only for the designated 12 spaces. Please contact Father Peter to arrange to collect your permit. You do not need to fill anything in on it, simply display it each Sunday.

RESTORATION HIGHLIGHTS: On Christmas day we celebrated the 177th birthday of St Joseph's church and we remember with gratitude the faith of our forebears free settlers and convicts who are the living foundation stones upon which our church and faith is built. Last week Gavin Merrington finished the restoration of the stained glass windows. History of windows: The stained glass windows were put in between 1856 and 1893 and all except one were made by Hardman and Scott of Birmingham, U.K. The pair between the chapel and the confessionals are scenes from the life of St. Joseph and were installed in 1871, one, in memory of Bishop Wilson and his Vicar-General Dr. William Hall, who both died in 1866, includes their portraits. The other is in memory of Archdeacon George Hunter ordained in this church in 1850, brother of the architect Henry Hunter. Opposite, on the Harrington Street side, is a window in memory of Fr. John Joseph Therry, founder of this church, given by his brother in 1877. It shows St. Joseph and St. John the Baptist with Fr. Therry, wearing a cope, kneeling at his feet. The window of the Annunciation and Nativity is the oldest and was installed in the Sanctuary wall by Bishop Willson in 1856, in memory of the English architect A. W. Pugin who had given the Bishop designs for churches. It was moved in 1877 when the chapel was built. The window over the sacristy door in memory of Fr. Joseph Aloysius Sheehy shows St. Joseph, the Sacred Heart and St Aloysius, and was made in 1893 by Lyon, Wells and Cottier of Sydney. The Sheehy family had been connected with St. Joseph's from the beginning. In October this year a custom made cabinet was purchased by the parish for the preservation of the rare Pugin vestments which have not been in public view for a long time. We express our gratitude to the people of the Tasmanian Museum especially Nikki Kingsmith.... who provided not only advice on how we should preserve these historically important vestments but did all the 'hands on work' for us. Over the coming months parishioners and visitors will be given the opportunity to view these vestments alongside the chalices and significant altar ware that are part of St Joseph's history.
